PRICK THREE CENTS

LOSES TWO GAMES, BUT TAKES THIRD

Narberth Is Snowed Under by Garrett Hill and Berwyn, But Recovers.

WAYNE BITES THE DUST

Narberth lost two of its three week-end games, when Berwyn swamped them 12-1, and Garrett Hill topped, 7-3. Staging a come-back in the afternoon of the Fourth, however, Narberth out-slugged Wayne, 16-4. Today Gladwyne will be given an opportunity on the Community Playground to prove that it deserves the Main Line League leadership. Today's games are the last of the first-half season, and are being staged as make-ups for one rainy Saturday afternoon during the half when no games were played.

Halas, pitching slow curves for Garrett Hill last Saturday, allowed Narberth only five hits. Farnam slammed a homer in the second inning and scored three men who were leading the bases. After the smoke cleared, Garrett Hill retained its four run lead, with a 7-3 score. The tally follows:

Trost, pitching and slugging the ball for Berwyn, defeated Narberth Monday morning with a score of 12-1. He pitched air-tight ball in the final eight innings, collected four hits, two singles, a double and triple. His team collected 14 hits altogether, including four doubles and two triples. Narberth had only seven hits, all singles. Keyes, of Narberth, starred in the field, accepting

WILL CONNECT SCHOOLS

Passageway Between Two Narberth Schools Nearly Completed.

Needed for eleven years since the new school was built, a passageway connecting the Narberth elementary and Junior High School is now being completed. Before the School Board's meeting July 22 it is expected that the Powell Construction Company of Ardmore, who are the lowest bidders, will have finished the job.

Children will be able to pass from one school to the other when school opens September 17 without getting wet on rainy days. The lunchroom in the Junior High School and the gymnasium in the elementary school have drawn students out in the wet heretofore who now will not be inconvenienced when old Jupiter Pluvius goes roaring.

Other necessary repairs and improvements within the buildings will be undertaken and completed before school opens, and as a result of the next meeting of the School Board. All vacancies in the teaching staff have been filled, with one exception, which will be considered at the July 22 meeting.

GIRL SCOUT

Awards Go to Two in Narberth.

Ruth Hopkins, of 101 Merion avenue, Narberth, was recently awarded a Girl Scout scholarship for outstanding work during the past year in District No. 8. The award is one of nine which have been made by the Girl Scout Scholarship Committee of the Main Line for summer courses at Camp Tall Trees, Media, and Camp Andre, near Briarcliff, N. Y.

Mrs. John C. Nash, of 80 Wynnewood avenue, was awarded a course at the National Training Camp for Girl Scout leaders. It also is located near Briarcliff, N. Y. The award is one of five given to outstanding Girl Scout leaders in the district.

SEEKS WORKERS

Preparatory to the Red Cross membership drive in the fall, Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, chairman of the drive, has issued the following statement:

"The Red Cross finds it necessary to have some typing done and asks for volunteers. Work may be taken home by responsible persons. Will banks or business houses volunteer the services of their stenographers during their spare hours?"

"Information about the work may be had by applying to the headquarters of the Main Line Branch, No. 1, American Red Cross, Memorial Building, Bryn Mawr. Telephone number, Bryn Mawr 986."

Police Will Watch Vacation—Empty Houses.

The Lower Merion police are making every effort to guard vigilantly the hundreds of homes in the township which are left unprotected during the annual summer exodus of residents to mountain and shore resorts. To enable them to do this efficiently property owners are asked to notify police headquarters when they leave, so that the policeman on the beat may be informed to keep a close watch against intruders.

This is a service which is rendered at no charge or obligation to the householder and residents are asked to co-operate by telephoning Ardmore 19 or otherwise communicating with police headquarters.

A list of hints to residents planning vacations was issued this week by Superintendent Charles P. Smith. "With the advent of the vacation season, the burglar, prowler and sneak thief is on the lookout for unguarded property," he said. "Whether you reside in an apartment or residence, here are a few points to remember when you leave home:

"Every window in your house should be securely fastened with a good strong lock or fastener. The same thing should apply to all doors, and see that they are locked.

"Don't fail to notify your mail man to hold your mail. Accumulated mail in a mail box or elsewhere is an invitation for a sneak thief.

"Notify your newspaper carrier, your milkman, or anybody who may deliver articles to you not to make any deliveries until your return.

"Don't pull your shades all the way down. All outward appearance of your place should be the same as if you were home.

"Under no circumstances should valuables be left in the house. Your bank or a storage warehouse will take care of valuables.

"Ask your neighbor to glance over your place occasionally, and see that doors and windows are not tampered with or broken.

"Be sure to notify the police department that you are going away, the length of time you will be away, and whether there is supposed to be any one around the place during your absence.

"The police department is at your service. Do not hesitate to ask for our assistance at all times. We want to protect your property. Help us do it."

Bedros B. Jarfjian, Late of Turkey and New York, Visits the Main Line

Tuesday afternoon Bedros B. Jarfjian discovered that his path to California was not going to be an easy one when he tried to go through Ardmore pushing his coffin from New York to San Francisco.

Wearing a hunter's cap with the red flannel side turned out, high boots, khaki minus furs and a nondescript Norfolk jacket, Bedros appeared in Ardmore pushing a peddler's three-wheeled cart labeled "My Coffin" and "The Wanderer." Everything went well until he got to the old post office at the corner of Lancaster and Anderson avenues, but there the crowd began to gather. An alert member of the Lower Merion police force saw the disturbance and investigated—obstructing the traffic was not allowed.

Back down the pike, retracing his weary steps, Bedros B. Jarfjian trailed the policeman to the township building. Here the wanderer reluctantly left his precious coffin outside and went in to explain the whys and wherefores of his trip. It seems that Bedros had arrived in New York on March 25, 1921, from Turkey and that he had attempted to make his living there ever since. Sixteen or seventeen dollars a week wasn't enough for him, he decided after six years, so he determined to follow the trail of those successful men who had heeded the command: "Go west, young man, go west!"

He explained all this in a perfect torrent of words, most of which were unintelligible, accompanied by many gesticulations and considerable beating of his manly breast. Even Mayor Walker had given him a sendoff at City Hall in New York, and he had come through Philadelphia without being molested, but here—!

With a good-natured warning to head west again and not to obstruct the traffic until he was well out of Ardmore, Bedros was sent on his way.

"FREEDOM" IS TOPIC

Of Reverend R. E. Keighten in Talk to Balcynar Rotary Club.

Speaking on "Freedom" at the weekly luncheon of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club in the Cynwyd Club Tuesday, Reverend Robert E. Keighten, pastor of the Narberth Baptist Church of the Evangel, told the Rotarians that there is a real element of detriment in the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution.

"Legislation does not make better men and women," he said, "nor do new laws create more respect for the old. Education in the schools and in the homes is the best means to accomplish reforms." Freedom of speech also was considered by the speaker in the course of an interesting talk.

Ralph S. Dunne, Narberth coal merchant, will be the speaker at next week's meeting of the club.

PLAYGROUND OPEN

The Community Playground opened last Friday for the summer. It will remain open during July and August. The instructors will be in attendance from 9 to 12 and from 1 to 4 daily, except Saturdays, when the afternoon session will be omitted.

WOMEN VOTERS MEET

Next Tuesday in Devon.

An intercounty conference of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles M. Lea, Devon, 11 A. M. to 4 P. M. Tuesday. There will be discussions of interesting problems and the presentation of a playlet. Each woman is requested to bring a box luncheon.

All members of the Narberth League are invited to attend. There will be questions of local interest discussed. Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, of Chestnut avenue, Narberth, leading the Montgomery county "Ask-Me-Anything." Information on reaching Mrs. Lea's home can be obtained by calling Narberth 2671-W.

BASEBALL RULERS REVAMP SCHEDULE

Decide to Allow Open Territory for All the Teams.

STAND PAT ON RULINGS

When the smoke of battle had cleared away from the meeting of the Main Line League, held last Tuesday night in the Men's Club of Wayne, it was discovered that important changes had been made regarding the second half of the playing season and that despite the protests hurled hither and yon by the various moguls, the executive committee stood pat on its decisions on the three protested games of three weeks ago. So, to settle the matter of the first half first, the league decided that Berwyn and Gladwyne finished in a tie for first place with seven wins and two losses apiece, and ordered the two teams to play off postponed games with Paoli and Narberth, respectively, next Saturday afternoon. In case the teams are still tied at the end of Saturday's hostilities a Sunday game will be arranged later in the season.

In an effort to put a quietus on the numerous protests that have arisen, the executive committee passed an amendment to the by-laws giving the president of the league the power to decide all disputes, subject to appeal to the executive committee, a majority vote of which will in all cases be final. This amendment does away with the arbitration board.

To get down to the important changes regarding the second half race, it was decided to have an open territory for all the teams.

Faked Personal Letter Mailed Abroad, Newest Advertising Stunt

"Mon Vieux," runs a letter recently received by a subscriber, "We have had a perfectly splendid time in Southern France and Italy. Sorry you could not have been there. By the way, we had the use for several days of one of those new Erskine Sixes made by the Studebaker.

"It is surprising to note the vogue this American car has all through Europe. Of course it has been well advertised (attached clipping showed French account of Lindbergh's landing on one side, and automobile ad on the other), but that wouldn't have put it over without such smart continental lines and real American pep on the hills.

COMING CAMPAIGN STIRS BORO POLITICS

Candidates Being Groomed as July 20, First Day for Petitions Nears.

WILL ELECT COLLECTOR

Candidates are now being groomed for various Narberth borough and school board offices which are to be nominated at the primary on September 20 and elected at the general election on November 8. Several names have already been mentioned informally for the various berths, but just who will be out will not be certain until next Thursday, the first day when nominating petitions may be circulated for these offices.

The post around which the biggest fight is expected to center will be that of borough tax collector—the best paying office. The term of Edwin P. Dold, appointed recently by Council to the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Frank Diven, will expire this fall. Mrs. Diven, who was the former Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson, relinquished the office upon removing from Narberth after serving somewhat over a year and a half of her term.

Under the old law, the successor to Mrs. Diven would have served out the remainder of the four-year term, but this was changed by the revised borough code which the recent legislature passed. Under this the appointee holds office only until the next general election at which time a candidate must be elected for the remaining two years. This means that the candidate selected this fall will serve to 1930 when the office will once more be open for a four-year stretch.

A borough tax assessor, two members of the school board and three Councilmen will also be up for election this fall. The term of Frank J. O'Brien, assessor, expires, and also the terms of Colonel I. A. Miller and Mrs. Grace E. Batchelor, members of the School Board.

Councilmen whose terms end this year are E. C. Griswold, president of Council; William H. Fretz and Clifford Bate. Mr. Bate was appointed in the spring to fill the post made vacant by the death of A. Perry Redifer. The terms of all three Councilmen who will be selected will be for four years.

In addition to these, election officers, judge of elections, inspectors and assessors will be elected in all three of Narberth's election districts. These minor officials come up for election every two years.

SCOUTS COMMENCE CAMP LIFE TODAY

WEEK-END CAMP READY

Early this morning 24 Boy Scouts left Narberth for a week's stay at Camp Delmont on Creek Unami, while 21 more began their hike to Camp Penshurst, the week-end camp established along Mill Creek on the farm of Percival Roberts, Jr. The scouts at Camp Delmont earned their way in the recent minstrel show given in Elm Hall. They will be in command of Assistant Scoutmaster James McCutcheon, assisted by I. N. Wilson, who accompanied them last year.

Camp Penshurst has been made ready for the boys who camp there this week-end. Tuesday and Wednesday the grassy site was mowed and small underbrush cut away. Two trails were cut through the woods, and an amphitheater effect was produced in a quarried-out side of the hill, for use of the evening camp fire. The swimming hole has been started for the boys to finish.

During the past week-ends at the camp the boys will put into practice what they were taught during the winter: scout lore and the many details of outdoor life which are best learned through experience. Provisions have been arranged for by the Troop Committee, but the scouts themselves will be required to prepare the major portion of each meal, thereby enabling them to test their knowledge acquired from the camping manual.

The camp site was selected by Mr.

SHE CLUCKS RESENTFULLY

Squawking vociferously, a chicken fluttered out on West Lancaster avenue in Ardmore late last Friday afternoon. Hot-foot after it came the chef of the Carlton Cafe, for whose guests the chicken had been in process of preparation.

Officer Barney King, watching the congested motor traffic along the pike, saw the chicken commence crossing, in imminent peril of its life. Callous pedestrians paused to jest. But not so Officer King.

"Shoo!" said he, flapping his arms, and looking very stern. But the chicken wouldn't shoo. It flapped its wings, and darted under a parked car.

Officer King looked worried. A catastrophe, even a fowl catastrophe, was not to be permitted on his beat if he could help it. But what could he do? Obviously, he could not climb under the car. Dignity and avoidance prevailed. He stood perplexed. So did the chef, a man of no mean equator himself.

Employees of a nearby store saved the situation. Reaching under the car, one slim hero seized the chicken; placed it in the arms of the chef. Clucking resentfully, it was carried back to the kitchen.

LEAVES FALL, BUT 'TIS NOT AUTUMN

Norway Maple Leaves Give Appearance of Fall—But No!

PLANT LICE IS CAUSE

Narberth of late has been experiencing a "Green Autumn." Hundreds of green leaves, particularly from Norway maples, have been falling and many residents who have observed this unusual spectacle have been puzzled by it.

The trouble is caused by the aphids, or "plant suckers." These, attaching themselves to the leaves, suck the sap and leave the leaves, although still green, dry and brittle—particularly at the stem. Then when a breeze comes along, down go the leaves, giving a curious effect to the otherwise summery landscape.

The presence of these insects on the maples is evidenced by the sticky material which they excrete. This is commonly known as honeydew and is evident this year on the surface of the leaves on the walks under the trees.

So far as is known there are no satisfactory artificial control measures. The insects may be killed by spraying with a tobacco extract material, found on the market under various trade names. The proper dilution would be one part of the commercial product to 1000 parts of water. This spray is directed toward the underside of the leaves and must be extremely thorough, since only insects that are sprayed will be killed.

A stream of water from a hose, if there is considerable pressure, is of value as a deterrent, for the plant lice are swept off the leaves to the ground, where they die. Clear hot weather, however, will do more to kill the pests than anything and a few days of bright sunshine will dry up the aphids. The trees will not be any worse, except that they will contain fewer leaves than they should at this season.

JULY BEGAN COOLLY

Weatherman Decker Reports—Mercury Hits 50-Degree Low Level.

Coming down quite a bit from his high horse, Old Man Fahrenheit streaked redly down from a temperature of 83 degrees to 50 degrees during the week, according to Main Line Weather Observer Charles Decker. The week's temperature was highest Sunday, when 83 degrees were registered. Tuesday night the thermometer struck a low 50-degree level.

Precipitation for the first five days of July measured .06 of an inch. The barometer was high at 30.22 and low at 29.82. The temperature deficiency this month is 33 degrees. The same time last year there was a deficiency of only 7 degrees.

The high and low temperature for each of the first five days in July follow: Friday, 79-53; Saturday, 77-61; Sunday, 83-61; Monday, 78-56; Tuesday, 76-50.

CHANGE NAME

Main Line Citizens' Body Is Now Community Health and Civic Asso.

The Main Line Citizens' Association has changed its name. At a meeting held last Monday night in the Memorial Building, in Bryn Mawr, the new name was adopted: Community Health and Civic Association.

All the health and civic work carried on in the past will be continued by the organization, and in addition the American Red Cross and the Tuberculosis Seal Sale Committee have asked that their field work be directed and managed by it. Much of the Red Cross work will be carried on from Bryn Mawr as before.

When the American flag floated gloriously aloft above the Community Playground Monday it marked the opening of Narberth's greatest Fourth of July celebration and the termination of the Narberth Civic Association's long and useful career. The sixty-foot pole was a gift of the Civic Association to the borough, made possible by the sale of Our Town when the group disbanded, November 16, 1926.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the flag raising began. On behalf of the Narberth Girl Scouts, Helen Denman, 112 Essex avenue, made a speech of presentation of the flag, which was offered by the girls within 48 hours after publication in Our Town two weeks ago of an appeal. Four other flags were offered by individuals and groups by the girls were first to offer aid.

"We are taking this opportunity to express our appreciation to the borough," said Miss Denman in her speech, "for its provision of the present Girl Scout quarters in the Community Building. We want Narberth to know by our gift of this flag that we are grateful."

Harry A. Simpson, commander of Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, Narberth American Legion, made a brief address in presenting the pole to the borough in behalf of the Civic Association. Reverend E. A. Shindle, G. A. R. veteran, of Elmwood avenue, offered a prayer. Burgess Henry A. Frye, accepting the flag in behalf of Borough Council, stressed the civic pride and enterprise of the association which had made the gift possible.

Gift of Civic Group.

"This playground itself is a gift of the Narberth Civic Association," he said. "Formed over twelve years ago, the loyal group of citizens took a mosquito-infested swamp and made it the borough's community playground. The donation of this flagpole is the final act of the association."

When the Civic Association disbanded, November 16 of last year, it voted to sell Our Town to its editor, and to devote the proceeds to civic betterment. As a result the community has a sixty-foot iron flagpole, the deficit on the memorial tablet was wiped out and $250 was given to each of the following: the Library, Fire Company, Boy Scouts and Women's Community Club building fund.

Hundreds of citizens witnessed the flag raising, which preceded the afternoon ball game. A West Philadelphia band furnished music during the game, and also during the evening fireworks celebration.

Approximately four thousand people are estimated to have attended the evening celebration of the Fourth on the Community Playground. Hundreds of cars were parked for blocks around the center of festivities. Probably never in the history of the borough has such a large crowd gathered on the Fourth.

After 9:30 the fireworks were let loose, and soon the sky was a blaze of color and flickering light. Dazzling star shells exploded in deafening succession, and trailed brilliantly downwards. Skyrockets and flares, Roman candles and spectacular set pieces formed the most brilliant pyrotechnic display witnessed in Narberth. Set pieces included a Niagara Falls, American flags and a "Good Night" message.

The community in charge of arrangements was composed of Harry A. Simpson, chairman; W. Russell Green, Robert C. Collins and Roland K. Hewitt. The co-operating citizens were William J. Bailey, E. P. Dold, W. P. Davies and Ralph S. Dunne, who is also a member of the local post.

THANK FRIENDS, NEIGHBORS

"The family o Mrs. William J. Swan wishes to express their appreciation for the many kind services of their friends and neighbors during the hour of bereavement. The thoughtfulness of so many is indeed very consoling.

(Signed) MRS. WILLIAM SWAN."

NEED MORE

Narberth's splendid Fourth of July was marred by only one factor: the community has failed to pay for the expenses incident to the celebration. Appeals for $1 contributions from each resident were mailed, but so far less than $400 has been collected, including contributions left at the American Legion booth on the Community playground Monday.

Expenses this year were $566. Last year $600 was expended and collected. Contributions to clear up the shortage of approximately $175 are still lacking, says J. L. McCrery, cashier of the Narberth National Bank, and treasurer of the Fourth Fund.

The Civic Association gave the pole. The Girl Scouts gave the flag. Will the community be less generously public-spirited?

HOME FIRST

That is what you've been thinking about for some time, and we've been wondering just how to bridge the gap and help you.

As the old Colonial furniture is being handed down and imitated because it has beauty oftentimes indescribable, just so are the old Frame Houses being sought, copied and modernized. In some cases they are reproduced to the most minute detail.

We'll agree that lumber has certain disadvantages in construction work, but the variety of woods and the variety of its uses so far outnumber any of its competitors, that we look upon it as the old standby.

Build a Home First, then happiness and prosperity will follow.

A cheap tube
can cost you
10 times its
price . . . . .

THIRTY-NINE YEARS of tube-building experience has proved to Dunlop that "cheap tubes" do not pay.

That is why Dunlop tubes are made casing shaped. It costs a little more than to build them on a straight pole, as cheap tubes are built.

But a casing-shaped Dunlop tube is strong everywhere. The outside edge is not weakened by excess stretch. The side next to the rim has no wrinkles to crack with age and blow out. A Dunlop tube protects your casing, because it fits. And your casing is worth ten times the cost of the tube.

We strongly recommend a Dunlop tube for every casing

To the Lady of the House

or

Isn't the Heater Fire a Woman's Job?

It isn't just the trend of modern times that has made the heater fire a woman's job. That has always been more true than not.

Isn't it the woman who must "fire up" in the day time hours, the woman who feels the atmospheric changes in a house because she is in it more consistently; the woman who offers the reminder that "it is time to order coal"?

That is why we address this message to the "Lady of the House." It must mean something to her to burn coal that will give more heat and less ash; and it must be a relief to her to know that the coal bins are filled with such coal in preparation for next winter.

And so we say to her: "See that your coal bin is filled now for next winter, and see that it is filled with JEDDO-HIGHLAND coal. Your job will be lighter."

REQUESTS PLAN

Of Community Building—State Library of Illinois Interested.

The superintendent of the extension division of the Illinois State Library recently wrote to the librarian of the Narberth Library requesting a blue print of the community building, and information concerning its size, its cost, construction and management. "I have seen illustrations of the exterior and interior of your library in the house organ of the Yawman and Erbe Company," the superintendent wrote. "and as I have been looking for plans for a library and a community house combined I would be glad if you could let us see your blue prints."

The house organ referred to is a monthly bulletin sent out to libraries all over the country by the Yawman and Erbe Company, manufacturers of library and office equipment. This is the company who installed the equipment of the Narberth Library and who have been so pleased with its appearance that they have used prints of the exterior and the interior to illustrate their bulletin.

The local librarian was glad to reply to the request of the Illinois Library, for it is gratifying to the company who installed the furniture to receive so frequently such commendations as the above. It is more so to the extent of about 30 volunteers who so faithfully give of their time each week to maintaining the library and to that group of interested residents of Narberth who by constantly using the facilities of the library enable it to develop.

tory for all teams, which means that Wayne or any other team can secure players from wherever they want. Manager Dunne, of Wayne, was firm in his stand for the open territory, telling the managers plainly that it was otherwise impossible for him to put a first-class team in the second half race.

After considerable discussion the managers agreed to make this radical change, but insisted that each team have its new list of 25 eligible players ready to present at the meeting to be held next Monday night at the Men's Club, so that they might be approved or disapproved by the executive committee.

In addition, the league decided to revamp the schedule for the second half, changing all the games except for the first Saturday.

Managers and representatives present at the meeting were: President Harry Mosteller, of Ardmore; Secretary-Treasurer Charles Harnden, of Narberth; A. A. Ware, C. C. Shoemaker and J. K. Dunne, of Wayne; W. H. Doyle, Dan Redmond and Bob Doyle, of Berwyn; W. H. Crawford and Jim Rogers, of Garrett Hill; Walter Hanley and Messrs. Lewis and En-triken, of Paoli; Dr. Barker and George Nellings, of Gladwyne, and Fred Wal-zer and Gene Davis, of Narberth.

Finally recovering, Narberth socked Wayne Monday afternoon in the first game of the week-end group played at home. The score, 16-4, resulted from 20 hits collected from "Lefty" Walker, of Wayne, four of which were for extra bases. Keyes led the offensive with four hits and a sacrifice. He also starred in the field, accepting six chances without a miss. Babb pitched good ball for Narberth, allowing only five hits. The box score:

FAKE ADVERTISING

Main Line residents in a long time! Evidences of the hoax were soon found.

First, the letter was not written, but merely printed in a good semblance of writing. It was printed, for convenience, on the first and last sheets, the first page being on the last sheet, and the final page being on the first sheet, contrary to usual usage. The writing of the letter and of the envelope did not agree. The Erskine Six was mentioned out of proportion to the size of the letter.

And finally, "Mon Vieux" is a rather indefinite and most obviously easy manner of addressing any host of male colleagues, all at the same time. But it was a good sales letter, nevertheless; one that was not readily to be consigned to the waste paper basket with the usual form-letter type of advertisement. A check-up showed that several of these letters had been received here by college students and recent graduates.

WINS CLOSE GAME

Narberth Won Tight Battle Wednesday.

Overbrook bowed to Narberth Wednesday in a seven-inning twilight game, 1-0. Masters and Hurst, for Narberth, allowed only two hits between them. Ritter pitched good ball for Overbrook, allowing two hits, but they were sufficient. Narberth made the winning run when Martin scored from second on Flynn's single. The score:
